For example, small disputes that arise from time to time between people will not occur. Also remember that India is a very large country and the people of every area have their own ways and issues. They have their own culture... So you must cater for the people of each area according to their circumstances and needs.”

Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad further said:

“You should identify the moral and spiritual weaknesses that exist in each area of the country that need to be eradicated or improved upon. There should be a plan in line with their local circumstances. One basic generic Tarbiyyat programme should be developed but, alongside it, you should make tailored local programmes according to the circumstances of the people of those particular areas. If Khuddamul Ahmadiyya can work accordingly, then the next generation of our youth will be well protected.”

The Last Ashra of Ramazan : Fortify Prayers and Repentance with Durood

After reciting Tashahhud, Ta'awwuz and Surah al-Fatihah, His Holiness, Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad (aba) said that by the grace of Allah, these days we are passing through the blessed month of Ramadan, and in a few days, will be entering the last ten days of Ramadan. The Holy Prophet (sa) has said that the last ten days of Ramadan are of attaining salvation from Hell. Thus, we must pay special attention towards our prayers especially during the last ten days of Ramadan, so that we may attain the pleasure of God Almighty and be saved from the hellfire.

The Holy Prophet's (sa) Standard of Prayer During Ramadan

His Holiness (aba) said that the state of the Holy Prophet's (sa) prayers during the last ten days of Ramadan cannot even be described in words. Regarding the state of his prayers during the month of Ramadan, Hazrat A'ishah (ra) relates that he strove harder in his prayers than was seen at any other time.

His Holiness (aba) said that the Holy Prophet (sa) is the perfect model for us, and we must try to establish the same standards set by the Holy Prophet (sa). Then will Allah Almighty be pleased with us, and then will we be regarded as true believers. Thus, we must immerse ourselves in prayers, especially during these days.

Invoke Blessings Upon the Holy Prophet (sa)

His Holiness (aba) said that in order to have our prayers heard, it is necessary to send salutations upon the Holy Prophet (sa). It is narrated that once the Holy Prophet (sa) said that one who abandons sending salutations upon him, abandons the path leading to Paradise. On another occasion, the Holy Prophet (sa) said that one who sends salutations upon him, God will send ten salutations upon that person, and will raise them up ten ranks and will record ten good deeds under their name. This gives us an idea of how important it is to send salutations upon the Holy Prophet (sa).

by Hazrat Mirza Tahir Ahmad, Khalifatul Masih IV^(rh)

This book is a brief introduction to the five fundamental articles of the Islamic faith. The articles of faith, which all Muslims believe in, are: Unity of God, Angels, Prophets, Holy Books and Life after Death.

Throughout the book, the author emphasises the areas of similarities between Islam and other religions. He shows how religious teachings evolved through the ages culminating in the complete, perfect and universal teachings of Islam.

The author further argues that it is this universal nature of Islam which renders it the religion capable of uniting people from all the nations of the world under one banner of Peace and Submission.
